

Introduction

The McKinney-Vento Act is a federal law that protects the educational rights of school-aged children in homeless situations and guarantees school enrollment for anyone who, due to a lack of permanent housing, lives in inadequate or temporary settings, such as:

- In emergency or transitional shelters
- In motels, hotels or campgrounds
- In cars, parks, public places, bus or train stations, or abandoned buildings Doubled up with relatives or friends
- In these conditions and is a migratory child or youth

Homeless and unaccompanied youth lacking fixed, regular and adequate housing have the following rights:

- A permanent address is not needed to enroll in school
- Students Won't be denied enrollment in a DPS school in instances Where school records or other enrollment documents are not immediately available
- Students can remain in their same school (school of origin) even if their family moves
- Transportation services to and from school of origin Schools must provide Written explanation if a placement dispute occurs
- Students automatically qualify to participate in free breakfast and lunch programs on the campus
- Participation in extracurricular activities and all federal, state or local programs for which a student is eligible

The HEN staff encourages individuals to review the available resources listed within this Resource Directory. individuals can call 2-1-1 at any time for resource assistance from United Way, and also schools may be able to connect individuals with resources.

Utility Assistance

Colorado LEAP

Nov 1 thru April 30:

- Apply for heating assistance through Colorado's Low-Income Energy Assistance Program (LEAP). Call toll-free 1-866-HEAT-HELP (1-866-432-8435) for an application. LEAP is federally funded and managed through the county offices of the Colorado Department of Human Services.

Nov 1 thru April 30:

- If you have a letter from LEAP saying you do not qualify for LEAP assistance, you may still apply for heating assistance through Energy Outreach Colorado's partner agencies. Call 1-866-HEAT-HELP to find an agency near you. Energy Outreach does not provide direct help to individuals. For a list of participating agencies visit www.energyoutreach.org

May 1 thru Oct. 31:

- LEAP will no longer accept applications during this time, but you can apply for heating assistance through Energy Outreach's partner agencies. Call 1-866-HEAT-HELP to find an agency near you.

Energy Outreach Colorado (EOC)

Heat Help 866.432.8435

EOC will connect you with an agency to provide assistance with:

- bills for coal
- electricity
- gas
- firewood
- kerosene, oil or propane.

An EOC agency can help once during a grant year from Oct. 1 - Sept. 30.
